SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1863.

A CHAPTER OF REPLIES.

THE following have been suggested in reply to our Questions of Thursday's impression.

Mr. Davis's water scheme is stagnant: the legislators are afraid to wade through it.

The women-killers have not been shot: capital punishment is unfashionable, and inapplicable to "defenders of the country."

The English packets of 1863 depend on Rajah Lettsom's good pleasure: we hear of no change.

Mr. Rams doesn't know where he is in Salado navigation: Mr. Hutchinson has picked up some cotton ponchos, proving this staple is known in the Gran Chaco.

The Paseo Julio improving funds have not been devoted to private purposes: t e verandah, knocked down by Santa Rosa, is not worth repairing.

Doctor Acosta does not answer impertinent questions: what matter about his ethics? He merited a cap at school, and now he is a Prime Minister.

The female colonists return thanks to Sor. Cazon for their trip to Bahia Blanca, which has proved highly constitutional.

The repertoire of the Cathedral organist is miscellaneous: sometimes Te-Deum Laudamus, and anon one of Verdi's; Trovatore, Ballo dé Maschera, &c.

Doctor Minelli is gone to the camp.

The Municipality will probably hold a special meeting about watermen's horses and the gymnastics necessary to honor the 25th. May.

Sig. Fumi expects the Emporor of Brazil will make him Baron Chapaleofú for his skill in Indian composition.

Even the sentry, who attacks persons galloping by the Capitania, cannot tell when the last boy was drowned, the occurrence is so frequent.

Police-fines are immoral by giving vigilantes a percentage on misdemeanours: lottery tickets make our legislators patrons of gambling.

Doctors of law have nothing to do with Cork or geography: they seldom travel unless to Jericho, and then without Atlas,

The Guardia Monte murderer is supposed to be in that partido: Gilligan is not dead, but afraid to tell the authorities of his recovery.

The Chess Club died for want of a quorum,in the Ancla Dorada: the proceeds of chairs, chess-boxes and spittoons are to be inverted in a breakfast.

Box N. 2 of the cotton-gins is still aboard the Lady of the Lake: we expect it before the settlement of our paper currency.

The dead bullock on Barracas bridge was skinned: neither the Justice nor neighbours found the carcase disagreeable in look or odor.

The Cabildo clock involves a question: the city fathers do not refuse to pay for the clock, but M. M. Jaggly and Diavet had no right to mend the belfry.

"Our absent friend", we believe, usually writes after dinner, and before a large looking glass for the sake of "reflection.

Doctor Derqui occupies himself in literary labors, touching the ups and downs of his late Presidential life.

In 1862, the Revista died; the Nacion Argentina and Siglo were born. The Standard increased 600 in circulation: the Tribuna lost nearly 1000, the Nacional also declined.

Commander Escola's match seems to have been damp, his gun missed fire.

Mr. Jordana's geography must undergo an Editio Purgata before being adopted even in the college "America del Sur."

The proposal to convene Congress this year in the Women's Hospital has not been supported by any good reasons.

There are in Buenos Aires 1300 billiard-rooms and 14 book-stores: the census of books and cues has never been published,

Mr. Seoane is at Rio Janeiro, but we doubt that Dn. Pedro will be willing to join the League should he ask him.

The Mole is hardly worth repairing, as we are informed it cannot last over 5 years.

The Gas question is in a fair way to be amicably settled, without the Company cutting off the light, or the Gov. taking forcible possession of the works.

The Southern cemetery will not be found necessary until our want of drainage and water supply causes a sweeping pestilence.

The Cricket Club, imitating its Gleeful brother, retires into private life, neither having appeared in print for some time.

Gov. Cullen's visit was about the garrison of Rosario: he finds the soldiers unpleasant neighbors, just as we do.

Dr. Velez' grandmother was a Miss Sarsfield, hence he takes the name, but he never yet saw the Hill of Howth.

Indian children are given to people of "category" partly with a view to educate them, chiefly, however, to serve "mate."

The Artesian bore may find water at 315 yds. below the argillaceous layer of superfluous mud, but we question it.

Sauze prefers a "break;" but passengers will be accommodated with dog-carts through Uspallata, if they find him.

The Western line may possibly get beyond Moreno this year, but the Northern and Southern will certainly progress much faster.

For returns of the lunatics and camp-justices, please apply at the Convalecencia and Government House.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY.

THE news which we have received from the country districts is of the most cheering nature. Rain has fallen most copiously both North, South, and West; the thistles are falling fast and the new grass is springing up beautifully, horned cattle and horses are very fat, sheep are in superior condition, and on all sides we witness new puestos going up, and portable corrales going down.

In the partido of the Fortin the lagunas are all full and farmers have no longer to be drawing water for their sheep.

In the partido of the Capilla del Señor, there is positively no room for another flock; so close are the shepherds to each other that the European system of minding sheep has to be adopted, even by the natives, and from the moment the flock leaves in the morning until its return at night the pastor has to be with it. There is scarcely any part of the country so thickly populated as this partido, and during the last year the increase of the flocks is 33 per cent.

In other partidos we hear many complaints particularly respecting the loss of lambs from what is termed "the cramp;" one estanciero in San Antonio de Areco lost over 900 lambs last year from this pest. It is to be regretted that no one can offer a suggestion or a cure for this evil: the very finest and fattest lambs in a flock are invariably the ones attacked, and they rarely, if ever, recover.

In the partido of Rojas, which a few years ago was a desert pampa, we now have several subscribers, and are informed that several Irishmen from the South are about moving up to this partido, before the next lambing season. The tide is steadily setting northward, but we caution our countrymen against crossing the Arroyo Medio, until the land laws of Santa Fé are better arranged. Many of our countrymen have been consulting us on the propriety of investing in lands in Santa Fé. We have invariably declined advising our friends in the matter, but things have recently come to our notice which render it imperative on us to caution all foreigners from at present investing in one yard of Government land in that province.

In the partido of Ranchos a melancholy occurrence took place the other day. Some gentlemen having driven into the town of Ranchos, for the purpose of assisting at a function, were capsized and seriously hurt, and the dog-cart was almost smashed to pieces. As luck would have it, the accident happened in front of the English doctor's door, so relief was near at hand. The new church is now finished, and this little town is beginning to look a little brisker; the townspeople are determined that this year at least the Municipality and the Juez de Paz shall do something towards improving the town; the laguna is about half-full, but the low camps which previously were unfit for sheep are now the very best. We regret to say that the abrojo is on the increase in this partido; the authorities should look to this.

In the partido of Arrecifes, several native gentlemen have begun sowing cotton on a small scale, and there is every probability that, when the season arrives, some large cotton-fields will be planted. Sr Lezica has a fine establishment in this partido; but we regret to say he has not as yet called upon us, on the cotton question. Probably he thinks the saladero business more profitable; he is, we rather think, most seriously mistaken. Several estancias have been sold last year in this partido, at reasonable prices.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

THE works of this line have not yet commenced. Some "local events" which appeared in our columns, and were reproduced by our colleagues, were based on incorrect information. The contractors cannot turn the first sod within at least 15 days, and the ceremony will take place with the usual eclat and festivity. The agent of Mess. Peto and Betts is resolved to proceed actively with the line, but some preliminary operations have first to be carried out: of this class are the borings now making on the banks of Riachuelo, one of which is already 90 ft in depth. Mr. Harkness is not contractor for any works of the Railway, but has been employed in the borings already mentioned.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

WHATEVER doubt may have existed heretofore,amongst us,as to the proper appellation of the paper establishment in calle San Martin, it seems to be se tled now by the financial communication of Sr. Fraguerio, who, it is obvious, pays more attention to the monetary difficulties of Buenos Aires than the Oroño troubles of his little town. M. F. asserts, and we must say with some color of truth, that it is a misnomer to call the Casa de Moneda a Bank, for it is no such thing. We regret that, owing to the length of the document, we are unable to publish it. We hope, however that Gen. Mitre and his Government will agree with our Rosario Financier, and abolish all impediments to "free Banking".

The Justice of the Peace's report from Dolores is another heavy document before us. We hope Sr. Dominguez will study it, as there is much useful information to be found in it notwithstanding its verbosity.

The Chief of Police has promulgated the Dog law. We condemn the puppeyism of publishing it only in Spanish as there are many canine proprietors who have the misfortune of not understanding one word of Spanish. Such parties know comparatively little of what is going on except when published in their vernacular. MrCazon may despise such charac ers but a man who brings a favourite dog from England does not much relish to see him brained, without any notice, or knowing for why. Possibly in this country there may not exist any property in dogs, but in less advanced cities, such as London, Dublin, Paris, etc. dogs have their rights, and owners their remedies. The greater publicity a law can get the better. We therefore think our esteemed friend, the Chief, ought to avail himself of the utility of an English paper to publish his rules and regulations.

Contrary to all expectation, we perceive that the Northern Railway is not only covering expenses, but making fair profits. We cannot discover, however, why the Agent of the Company reports to the Government of Buenos Ayres, the workings of the road, since we have yet to learn that the Government has agreed to the amount of capital expended on the first section, or that the Government guarantee of 7 per cent has yet commenced to run;

We call particular attention to the auction sale of the Pulaski, in Montevideo. We understand she is well adapted to run on the rivers and is a well built vessel.

The Circus was well filled on Thursday night, and the performances were first-rate. Owing to an error in printing of the programme, people were led to believe that some of the Mother Goose pantomime was to succeed the tournament: this we regard as an attempt to make a goose of the audience; and we hope that Mr. Van Orden will henceforward get his play bills printed in our printing-office, where no such egregious errors occur. The mule is to be ridden to-night at least so our equestrian friend Mr Geo, Wilks states: the little gaucho boy who ever he is will have a hard job to hold on to a New Orleans jennet Mr. Rogers refuses, however, to bet.

It affords us great pleasure to assure the public that Dr. Velez Sarsfield is not so hard up as some people imagine: we read in the "Nacion Argentine", that the National treasury is full to overflowing, and money is quite easy down about the Custom House. This is good news for the holders of Parana bonds, who look forward with some anxiety to the coupon day next month.

OUR MONTEVIDEAN CONSUL.

Our indefatigable Consul-General in Montevideo has forgotten to forward us the following notices for publication. As we have many readers in Montevideo, we willingly find room for such important notices in our columns.

The elevated position of our friend, Mr L., may be some apology for this oversight on his part. We can fully appreciate the multiplicity of his occupations; but men who are raised to places of high public trust should be scrupulously exact in serving the interests of the country which employs them. Mr. L. has forgotten also to publish in the STANDARD, or in fact in any Buenos Airean paper, the notice respecting the settlement of the foreign claims, although he must be aware that a large portion of the claimant's are residents here. This is a serious oversight and merits our severest censure. "Tolluntur in altum, ut lapsu graviore ruant.

THE MULE TO BE RIDDEN,

Mr. Rogers inform us that the mule Balaam will be introduced at the Circus to-night, in compliance with the proposition of Mr. Wilks in the Standard yesterday—Mr. Wilks has arrived from the camp, with the Gaucho, whose exploits in subduing refractory animals have rendered him famous amongst horsemen. Even Mr. Rogers thinks Balaam may be ridden and lose his prestige as the "great unridden", especially as he declined to accept the wagers that the Backers of the Gaucho offer upon the result.

CAMP REFORM.

To the Editor—Sir—

I have much pleasure in informing you that, desirous as yourselves to reform the many existing abuses, and acting upon your suggestions, I have occupied myself compiling a list of the many camp reforms so vitally necessary, to suggest to Doctor Alsina for his new Rural Code. I am glad to inform you that not alone my production met the Doctor's approbation but I have pledged myself to continue it. I feel pleased in conveying this intelligence to yourself as, Champion of Public and social order. I am equally happy to inform you of Doctor Alsina's coincidence in every matter that can tend to the welfare, public good and order of this, the country of our adoption, of which I repeat we have no more sanguine laborers than yourselves,—truly yours.

RICHARD GIBBINGS.

THE "STANDARD" COTTON.

Department of the Interior.

Buenos Aires 27th December 1862.

To his Excellency the Governor of the Province of

The cultivation of cotton in our country is at present engaging the attention of all men interested in the development of national wealth, and the National Government following this general movement desires also to aid, within the sphere of its action, the development of this new industry which, once radicated in the Republic, offers the most cheerful hopes for the future.

With this notice I remit to your Excellency a small quantity of cotton seed with a manual for its cultivation hoping that it will be distributed for planting.

Some time hence your Excellency will receive a greater quantity of seed, as the government expects much more of good quality; and a work is being prepared for publication with more extensive details for its cultivation which will be sent as soon as ready;

May God preserve V. E.

ACOSTA.

This shows on an estimated cost of four millions a return of over one and a half per cent per month.

The works are being continued with activity and are expected to reach the Olivos by the month of March.

MISCELLANEA.

Lord Lindsay and his father (the Earl of Balcarres) have nobly announced an immediate contribution of 500l and a weekly contribution of 100l. for the next five months, towards the fund, for the relief of the distressed operatives in the manufacturing districts.

Irishmen are proverbial for coming over to our side of the water, and carrying off our wealthiest heiresses, and your talented member for the county Louth. Mr. Chichester Fortescue seems inclined to keep up the system. The able Under-Secretary for the colonies will, in a few days, lead to the altar, Frances, Countess Dowager of Waldegrave, who, in addition to unbounded popularity in society, enjoys the large estates of her second husband the late Earl, amounting, it is believed, to something like five and twenty thousand a year.—Saunder's London Correspondent.

A CURIOUS DIVORCE CASE.

Among the cases of more than usual interest that are about to occupy Sir Cresswell Creswell, says the Belfast News Letter, "is one that will be eagerly watched in the north of Ireland. The petitioner is the son of a nobleman who holds a public office in connexion with a very important town in Ulster, and who is the heir presumptive to an ancient Irish peerage. This gentleman was a short time ago co-respondent in a case in which one of her Majesty's consuls abroad presented a petition for the dissolution of his marriage on the ground of his wife's adultery. The marriage was in process of time dissolved, and within a few weeks after the judgment of Sir CresswellCresswell had been delivered the respondent and the co-respondent were married on the Continent, where the latter had been sojourning for some time. It seems, however, that the lady, who thus became twice a wife without having passed through the usual ordeal of widowhood, has proved unfaithful to her second vows. The petitioner alleges that she has committed adultery at Leamington and at Bath, and he prays that the court will annul his marriage on the ground that it was contracted before the three months then allowed by law for an appeal, or that, failing on that point, the marriage may be dissolved on the ground of adultery. The case presents many curious features of interest for the public generally, and especially for the jurist, as it is the first instance since the establishment of the Court of Divorce in which a respondent and a co-respondent to a petition for dissolution of marriage, having repaired their error as far as they could by marrying each other, have again appealed to the court to separate them on the ground of infidelity during such married state. It also raises the question as to whether a marriage contracted before the expiration of the three months allowed for appeal is valid."

LOCAL EVENTS.

BOLSA—The general meeting of the members of the Bolsa for the declaration of dividend and appointment of a new committee is to take place on Thursday the 15th inst.

INVASION.—A "Standard" idea has at length penetrated the citadel of our foes. Our cotton plants are thriving in the "Tribuna" court-yard; an emblem of foreign enterprise invading this country. Even Dr. Varela cannot resist our influence.

HAND BOOK—Our R. Plate guide will not be ready before the end of this month. Compositors are so scarce that we have been disappointed in providing it for Jan 15 h.

IMMIGRATION—45 second cabin passengers have arrived from Bordeax per Novean Mexique.

LINIERS—The remains of this brave French officer have been deposited in the pantheon of San Carlos, island of San Fernando, near Cadiz.

The title of Count of Buenos Aires has been conferred on his descendants, amongst whom are two young literary characters of this city.

SR. PIZARRO—An estanciero of the southern district of the camp, lost some time ago, is now reported to have been eaten up by wild dogs "cimarrones" which were very abundant in the neighbourhood.

SOLDIERS—40 arrived per Saint Pierre from Havre were transhipped and sent to Santa Fé, where they will be drafted into the foreign legion at that place.

We suppose the reason of this is the great desertion which was taking place in this city of these newly-landed soldiers.

SPANISH SQUADRON—An example worth imitating by the youth of this city:

Several young men of Montevideo have shipped on board the Spanish squadron as cadets. There are others in the American and English navies; later on their country will be enabled to man a navy composed of native officers.

LA DEMOCRACIA—The principles of this paper are, we fear, too liberal for the Entre Rios atmosphere it will be difficult for the Editor to continue his present course and hold his ground in Gualeguaychu.

DOCKS—Sr. Federick Roinon a native of Corrientes, lately come from Paris, where he has had considerable experience as a shipwright proposes the establishment of a Joint Stock company with 300,000 dollars currency capital for the construction of docks, wharfs, quays &c.

We believe the project most convenient and feasible if the Government will help the contractor a little.

MARRIED.
